

Computer Security

This workshop teaches you the basics of managing computer security. You will learn terminology associated with security and you will install and configure a security programme.

An outline is:

- Terminology – malicious software types and effects
- Install and configure a security programme