

Web Design Basics

This workshop teaches you the basics in designing a simple web site and choosing a host for your site. The programme used is Adobe Dreamweaver. Although your software may not be the same the principles remain the same.